

Please do not consider lessening the extent of protection given by the telephone privacy act. I HATE getting those unwanted and unsolicited calls. It wastes my time and it is annoying. They call at all hours of the day and night. Citizens need some kind of protection against those unsolicited calls. Thank you.
Michelle L. Reeve